Once your child's days are confirmed and a place is being held for them, creche fees will be charged regardless if the child does or does not attend the creche. One month's notice with full payment must be given to the creche when terminating your place or decreasing the amount of days you require. For children turning three with a confirmed booking for a full year, a three months' notice with full payment must be given when terminating your place before September 1st.
